

Lines, Doodling and Drawing...and Layering

Supply List:

Acrylic paints: Black, White, Blue, Yellow, Red, Brown (no smaller than 8 oz. jars or tubes)

Writing utensils of your choice (pencil, charcoal, Sharpie, conte, pen, etc.)

Acrylic Gel Medium (you can choose from matte, gloss, semi-gloss, soft, regular or hard...any type will work as long as it is called "acrylic gel medium")

Paint brushes – 3 or 4 in a variety of sizes and styles

2" or 3" wide foam paintbrush

Plastic container for water (needs to be something big enough for your wide brushes to fit in) – 1 or 2

Any type of paint palette (can use something like a paper plate or recycled styrofoam food container)

3 sheets of 18x24" multimedia paper (something sturdier than drawing paper and heavier than the multi media tablets...watercolor paper works well)

Scrap paper or a sketchbook

Roll of paper towels

Optional:

Photos, newspaper or magazine images of people, places, food, objects you like, Modge Podge or Elmers Glue, scissors, eraser, razor blade, piece of medium grade sand paper, painter's tape, sponge, medicine dropper, India ink, receipts, bubble wrap, graph paper, music sheets (or photo copies of music sheets), coloring book pages, cotton balls